Question 07:

DOE Rulemaking Non-Response or Non-Support

Describe your rationale for not commenting on or for not supporting DOE's proposed efficiency level (TSL) for all rulemakings responsive to Question 6.

Response to Question 07:

There are various reasons why SCE may choose to not file comments on DOE rulemakings including priority of issues (e.g., low energy savings potential for California, etc.), the proposed efficiency level is not for an electric-related measure, or SCE does not have a position on a particular proposal. SCE has supported many of the DOE's proposed efficiency levels, and in many cases, advocated for higher efficiency levels than the DOE proposed for electric appliances.
